

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

High-Service Works, City Proper, etc. — These works are practically completed. They have been in operation for the past year with satisfactory results.

East Boston and Breed's Island High-Service. — These works are in working order. The pumps are located in a brick building on Conder street, nearly opposite Brooks street. The supply for Breed's Island is raised by a pump to a tank located on the island, near its highest point.

Improvement of Lake Cochituate. — The shallow portions at the Pegan meadows have been deepened by the excavation of about 60,000 cubic yards of muck, and the shores have been covered with gravel.

Mystic Valley Sewer Works. — The new settling tanks have been completed, and are now in successful operation. The works consist of a pump-well connected to the main sewer, a sewage pump, an engine, an engine-house, four settling tanks, a sludge well, a sludge pump, and a series of settling basins for receiving the sludge.

Buck Bay Fens. — The portion of the fens and parkway between Agassiz road and Beacon street has been completed and thrown open to the public. A large amount of work has also been done on other portions of the fens.

Franklin Park. — The Playstead district has been completed, including the roads and walks, the overlook and the shelter building, and police station. This section of the park was thrown open to the public in October. Work upon Glen lane, which is to be a traffic road across the park, and upon the drives in the Country park, has been continued, so that an additional area can be thrown open the coming season. A quarry has been opened and a stone-crusher set up, by which means a large amount of stone has been prepared for constructing walls and roads.

Marine Park. — 1,030 feet of the iron pier has been completed, and an ornamental curb set on the line of Q street.

Charles-River Embankment. — The grading and planting has been completed, and fences erected on the sea-wall and around the Gymnastic grounds. The driveway has also been finished.

Wood Island Park. — The bridge over the Boston, Revere Beach, & Lynn R.R. has been finished, and the approaches to it graded.

Boylston-street Bridge. — The work of building this bridge has been completed. The crossing of Boylston street over the Boston & Albany Railroad is such that while the railroad location is but 60 feet in width, the distance across the location on the street line is 176.34 feet.

Main Drainage Works. — But little construction work has been done during the past year.

The completion of the present work is partially provided for by a recent act of the Legislature, and the necessity for the development of the complete drainage system for Boston and its environs is becoming more and more apparent.

Herewith will be found the usual details of receipts and expenditures, debt and property, and the accounts of the Board of Commissioners of Sinking-Funds, Treasurer, and Collector, in accordance with requirements of the charter and ordinance.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES H. DODGE,
City Auditor.

The prices paid for gas in the public lamps to the several gas companies are: Boston, at the rate of $1.00 per thousand cubic feet; Roxbury, $1.50; Charlestown, $1.55; South Boston, $1.50; East Boston, $1.60; Dorchester, $1.80; West Roxbury, $1.85; Brighton, $1.85; and Chelsea, $2.00 per thousand cubic feet.

The men who clean and light the gas-lamps are paid at the rate of $2.00 per day, and have an average of 84 lamps each.

The underground service-pipes are laid and kept in repair by the various companies, under the direction of the Superintendent of Lamps, and at the expense of the city, without pecuniary consideration or profit to the companies.

The oil-lamps, during the past year, have been lighted and cleaned by men employed by the Superintendent of Lamps, at the rate of $3\frac{1}{4}$ cents per lamp per night for this service.

The oil is purchased of the refiners at the lowest market rates.

In addition to the above, there are 704 electric lights burning (being an increase of 103 lights) under contract with electric lighting companies of this city, at the rate of 65 cents per light per night. The city provides the iron posts, and the companies furnish the lamps and light.

¹ Included in the total valuation of 1865, and all subsequent years, was an assessment upon corporations chartered by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, for real estate and machinery. The last item is taxed as personal, and is the only personal estate taxable by local assessors to a Massachusetts corporation.

In 1881, 176 corporations were assessed as follows:	Real Estate.	Machinery.	Total.
" 1882, 175	$43,301,200	$3,514,100	$46,815,300

² The town of Dorchester, with a valuation of $12,826,200 real, and $7,489,500 personal, total, $20,315,700, was annexed this year. Its valuation forms a part of the total valuation of Boston for 1870. The united valuation of the two municipalities for 1869 was $569,827,300.

³ The City of Charlestown and towns of West Roxbury and Brighton were annexed to Boston in 1873, their valuation taking effect as a part of the city in 1874.

Valuation of Charlestown in 1873 was $26,016,100 real, $9,273,582 personal, total, $35,289,682
 " West Roxbury " 16,254,350 " 5,894,250 " 22,148,600
 " Brighton " 11,964,450 " 2,584,081 " 14,548,531

The valuation in 1873 of Boston and the municipalities that were annexed to the city in that year was $765,818,213.

⁴ In consequence of the act of 1881, exempting money loaned on mortgage of real estate, the personal-estate valuation receded, notwithstanding large gains were made upon the other items of personal estate.

The valuation of 1888 for personal property can be fairly increased $54,836,500, in addition to the amount given in the foregoing table for the value assessed by the Commonwealth at the rate of $14⁵⁸/₁₀₀ per $1,000 upon shares of Massachusetts corporations, the property of residents in Boston. The State deducts from the value of each share the amount that represents the real estate and machinery locally assessed, and pays over to the city that proportion of the tax that represents the personal property of each corporation.

The valuation can be further increased, say $1,493,100 for bank stock, assessed at the several rates of the places where the banks are located, as the taxes are paid to Boston as assessments upon this class of property held by its citizens in Massachusetts banks located outside that city.

As the revenue from these two sources is always estimated before the amount to be raised by taxation is determined, the effect of the valuation of this property in reducing the rate of taxation upon the $764,452,548 assessed by the city is, as nearly as may be, the same as though its amount was included in the Assessors' aggregate, and the taxes were assessed by them.

The total valuation of personal estate which is assessed for all purposes for which the city must raise money by taxation can, for the year 1888, be put at $257,768.873.

In addition to the taxable valuation, churches, charitable, scientific, and literary corporations hold property exempt by law from assessment, as follows: Value of land, $13,847,900; value of buildings, $12,909,800. Total real estate, $26,257,700; personal estate, $14,405,900.

Of this total valuation of exempt property, amounting to $40,663,600, the sum of $14,774,300 is the estimated value of houses of religious worship and the land connected with those edifices; $11,483,400 is the valuation of the real estate occupied by charitable, literary, and scientific institutions for the purposes for which they were incorporated; and $14,405,900 is the value of the personal property of this class of benevolent and educational corporations, as returned to the Assessors by their officers, in accordance with the provisions of Chap. 217 of the acts of the year 1882. As required by that enactment, those corporations also reported that their receipts for the twelve months preceding the first day of May, 1888, amounted to $4,782,400, and their expenditures to $4,536,200.¹ It appeared by their returns, that at the date of assessment, these benevolent and educational institutions held as investments, $4,363,100 of the real estate of this city, which, not being occupied for the purposes of their incorporation, is assessed at its estimated value, forming a part of the real-estate valuation for the tax of the current year. The City of Boston holds, in its corporate capacity (not assessed for city taxes), $22,814,069 of actual assets available for the payment of liabilities, and $45,018,254 nominal assets, the character of which is shown in the following copy of the return of the Assessors as of May 1, 1888, to the State Treasurer:—

Large amounts of property, held by residents of, or located within the limits of, Boston, are by law or judicial decisions exempt from all assessments, the principal items being the real estate of the United States and the Commonwealth, United States bonds, money loaned upon mortgage of real estate, imported goods in original packages, and the furniture of a family below $1,000 in value. The proportion of the deposits in the savings-banks of Massachusetts ($315,185,071, Oct. 31, 1888) belonging to the residents of Boston is unknown, as the Commonwealth assesses the amount and retains the entire tax for State revenue. But the total valuation of Boston for property that, by existing laws, must be estimated for assessment or for the information of the Legislature, is as follows:—

Valuation of real and personal estate by Assessors	$764,452,548 00
Valuation of Massachusetts corporation stock [assessed by State] tax paid to the city	54,836,500 00
Valuation of Massachusetts National bank shares [assessed by State] tax paid to the city	1,493,100 00

The principal cities of the United States have each their own system of

SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS.

That of Boston, previous to the enactment of Chap. 174 of the Acts of the year 1866 (generally known as the betterment law), consisted of assessments upon abutters for the cost of sidewalks for foot-passengers upon the public streets, where the owners of estates have failed to construct them; ² and for three-quarters the expense of construction of new sewers, the city assuming one-quarter the cost. The betterment act, now Chap. 51 of the Public Statutes, enables the city to assess upon the owner one-half the amount that his estate has been benefited by the laying out, widening, or change of grade of any street, after the city shall have first paid all the land and building damages and the full cost of the work. The following table exhibits

¹ Chap. 299 of the Acts of the year 1879 [now Sect. 48 of Chap. 11, Public Statutes] required that the State Tax and County Tax should be assessed on polls, provided that each of such taxes shall not exceed the sum of one dollar (two dollars for the entire tax upon each poll). The excess above the amount so raised must be assessed on property. In the above table the sums stated in the columns of STATE TAX and COUNTY TAX, respectively, are the whole amounts required to be raised, and the figures in the columns of RATE show the amount per $1,000 for which property was assessed to make up the deficiency after the polls had been assessed at one dollar each for State and County purposes.

² Previous to 1872 the whole cost of sidewalks was assessed upon abutting estates; but Chap. 303 of the Acts of that year limits the assessment to one-half of the cost of construction.

¹ The entire betterment assessment of 1879 was laid by the Park Commissioners, for the benefit to property in the vicinity of the Public Park in the "Back Bay District."

² The betterments of 1883 were laid by the Park Commissioners—$126,223 for Franklin Park, West Roxbury, and $22,725 for the Marine Park, South Boston.

³ In January, 1874, the towns of Kingsbridge, Morrisania, and West Farms were annexed to the City of New York. Their real-estate valuation of about $9,500,000 was increased by the authorities of New York City to about $23,000,000, in order that their assessments might be based upon the same scale of appraisement as the property of Manhattan Island. This increased valuation was included in the tax of 1874.

The figures given above do not include the "special assessments;" they are not given, as there are no data as yet collected by which their detail and amount can be known. That such assessments are laid upon estates for purposes which in Boston are included in the expenditures met by the general tax levy is well known. A part of the personal estate of New York is taxed at a lower rate than other property. This, probably, is the result of suits in the United States Supreme Court against the city, in which national banks prevailed, upon the ground that their shares were assessed at a greater rate than other moneyed capital. The official statement is, that "the rate of tax upon assessed valuation of personal estate of such corporations, joint-stock companies, or associations as are subject to local taxation thereon," as follows:—

In addition to the supply in the lake, "Dug Pond," containing $44\frac{1}{2}$ acres, and "Dudley Pond," containing 81 acres, are connected with, and form important tributaries to it. The whole circuit of the lake, measuring at its verge when within two feet of high-water mark, is about 16 miles, and the city owns an average width of five rods around it, which is held free from taxation; also $1\frac{1}{2}$ acres at the outlet of Dudley Pond. In addition to this, the city owns $23\frac{3}{4}$ acres in Wayland, $72\frac{1}{4}$ acres in Natick, and on the line of the aqueduct, — not including land appurtenant to the Chestnut-hill and Brookline Reservoirs, nor land occupied by and necessary for the protection of the aqueduct, — $27\frac{1}{4}$ acres in Needham, $5\frac{1}{2}$ acres in Newton, $1\frac{1}{2}$ acres in Brookline, which is taxable.

The Cochituate aqueduct, extending from Lake Cochituate $14\frac{1}{2}$ miles to a reservoir in Brookline, of about 23 acres of water surface, and 119,583,960 gallons capacity.

SUDBURY-RIVER CONDUIT. — The Sudbury-river Conduit, extending from Farm Pond, in South Framingham, to the Gate-house at Chestnut-hill Reservoir, is 83,912 feet in length. The area of land owned by city on conduit line 198 acres, and area of reservoirs, 851.5 acres. A section of conduit, 4,170 feet in length, connects Farm Pond with Dam No. 1 on the Sudbury river, and another section, 3,760 feet in length, extends through Farm Pond, so that the Sudbury-river water can be sent to the city independently of the pond water. The city owns a width on the line of the conduit varying from 80 to 400 feet. In effecting settlements for the land taken for the conduit and storage basins, the Boston Water Board have, in many cases, purchased land not actually required for the above purposes.

Reservoir No. 1 has water area of 149 acres, and its capacity is 288,000,000 gallons.

Reservoir No. 2 has water area of 136 acres, and its capacity is 480,000,000 gallons.

Reservoir No. 3 has water area of 283 acres, and its capacity is 1,074,000,000 gallons.

Reservoir No. 4 has water area of 162 acres, and its capacity is 1,405,000,000 gallons.

The "Chestnut-hill Reservoir," situated in the Brighton District, of the capacity of 750,000,000 gallons, with a water surface of $123\frac{1}{2}$ acres. There are $212\frac{3}{4}$ acres in this whole property; the line of pipe from Chestnut-hill Reservoir to the main near the Brookline reservoir, also the land under which are the pipes, being in amount about $6\frac{1}{2}$ acres.

The "South Boston Reservoir," on the east of Telegraph Hill, South Boston, covers, with its embankment, an area of about 126,000 square feet. It resembles in shape a segment of an ellipse, and has a water area, when at high-water mark, of 70,041 square feet, and a capacity of 7,508,246 gallons. This reservoir is now used for storage, and is connected with the distributing-pipes only in case of fire or accident to the pumping-mains.

The "East Boston Reservoir," on Eagle Hill, East Boston, is bounded westerly by Brooks and southerly by White street. The land covered by and appurtenant to it comprises about 216,027 square feet. Its water area, when at high-water mark, is 44,100 square feet, and its capacity 5,691,816 gallons.

An iron tank on Breed's Island, East Boston, has been built for the purposes of high service for the residents in that vicinity, and a new engine-house has been built on the corner of Brooks and Condor streets, East Boston, to which the pumping-plant near the old reservoir has been removed.

"The "Parker-hill Reservoir," on Parker Hill, Roxbury District, is located on a lot of land taken under the Act of the Legislature authorizing the building of this reservoir, containing 197,614 square feet. It was built specially for the high-service supply, and will hold 7,200,000 gallons above a plane $2\frac{1}{2}$ feet above the bottom of the outflow pipe. The area of the water-surface, when at high-water mark, is 64,033 square feet, and its elevation 219 feet above tide-marsh level. A strip of land 25 feet wide leading from Fisher avenue, and containing 2,887 square feet, was purchased for a route for the pipes to the reservoir.

The new High Service Reservoir, situated on Fisher Hill, Brookline, was completed in 1887. The site for this reservoir, containing 459,670 feet of land, was purchased for the sum of $91,934. The capacity of the reservoir is 15,000,000 gallons. The pumping-station at Chestnut Hill is completed, and the two Gaskill engines, of 8,000,000 gallons capacity each, and two boilers are in place and in running order. The supplementary high service in West Roxbury consists of an iron tank on Mt. Bellevue, — the highest land in the city, — into which water is pumped by two Knowles pumps, placed in a neat and commodious brick house situated on Washington street, opposite Metropolitan avenue, Roslindale.

The main pipes leading from the receiving reservoirs in Brookline and Brighton District to this city, and the distributing-pipes laid in the city proper, East Boston, and South Boston, Roxbury, Dorchester, West Roxbury, and Brighton Districts, aggregate in length 457 miles, varying in size from 4 to 48 inches in diameter.

Pipe-yard and Wharf, Albany street, containing 132,000 feet, upon which there are wooden buildings for stables, storage of pipes, etc.; Pipe-yard and Machine-shop, on Federal street, near Summer, with tools and machinery, and other property therein, for the use of the department. This lot contains 9,192 feet, on which is a brick building used as a machine-shop. The original cost of the establishment, including tools and machinery, stables, etc., was about $30,000. In 1870, after the fire, two stories were added to the building, and general repairs made, at a cost of $6,848.50. Building on Elmwood street and place, on a lot of 5,563 square feet, in which have been the pumping-engines for supplying water to the highest parts of the city.

The report of the Boston Water Board to the City Council for the year 1888 contains a full statement of the condition of the work.

The cost of construction of these works to the city, up to the 30th April, 1889, is $20,155,758.44.

MYSTIC WATER-WORKS.

The upper portion of Mystic lake, which is the source of supply, is situated in the towns of Medford, Arlington, and Winchester, 6½ miles from Charlestown square. It has an area of about 200 acres when flowed to the level authorized by the act to take water, and a storage capacity of that level of 380,000,000 gallons. The area of country forming the drainage-basin is 27.75 square miles. To convey the water of the lake to the citizens, the works consist of dam and overfall; conduit with its appurtenant gate-houses, waste-weir, and ventilator; cast-iron main under Mystic river; engine-house; pumping-engines; force-mains; reservoir with influent and effluent chambers; supply mains and city distribution-pipes, hydrants, gates, etc.

The dam is 1,560 feet long, built of earthwork and masonry, and its height is 11 feet above high-water mark of Boston Harbor. The conduit is 7,450 feet in length, constructed of hydraulic brick masonry 8 inches thick. It is oviform in shape, 5 feet 8 inches high, and 5 feet wide, interior dimensions. The cast-iron mains, two in number, conveying the water from the pipe-chamber at the end of the conduit to the engine-house, are 487 feet long and 3 feet in diameter.

The engine-house is situated on the southerly bank of, and about 200 feet from, the Mystic river.

It is a substantial building, 120 feet long and 58 feet wide, constructed of faced brick and freestone, and embraces under one roof the boiler and engine rooms, repair-shop, and pump-well. The lot of land about the engine-house is about 12 acres, and upon a portion of it is a dwelling-house for the engineers, and also a stable. Connected with the engine-house is a brick and stone coal-shed, having a capacity of 1,000 tons.

In the engine-house are three of Worthington's Duplex Pumping-engines, two of 5,000,000 gallons each and one of 8,000,000 gallons capacity, per 24 hours. Seven boilers supply the steam for pumping the water.

The two force-mains are of cast iron, each thirty inches in diameter, and 3,277 feet in length. The reservoir is on Walnut Hill, in Medford, near Tufts College.

Its water surface covers an area of $4\frac{1}{2}$ acres, being nearly a parallelogram in shape, 560 feet by 850 feet.

High-water line is 147 feet above tide-marsh level, and at this grade its capacity is 26,244,415 gallons.

The whole lot of land connected with the reservoir belonging to the city is about $10\frac{1}{2}$ acres.

The whole length of distribution-pipes in Charlestown is about 38 miles. The whole length of distribution-pipes supplied by the Mystic works is about 142 miles. The city owns also a lot of land containing 12,807 square feet on Medford street, with a substantial brick stable upon it. This land is used for a pipe-yard.

A two-story brick building, 38×40 , built during the year 1882-83, for use as a workshop, is located on land of the city at the corner of Medford and Tufts streets.

MYSTIC SEWER. — The Mystic sewer extends from Prospect street in Woburn to Lower Mystic Pond in West Medford, a distance 18,892 feet.

The sewer was built to intercept the objectionable drainage from the tanneries, and discharge it into the lower pond at the head of the tide-water. The area of land taken under the act of the Legislature for the construction of the sewer and branch drains was 97,245 square feet. Works for a more comprehensive treatment of this sewage, with a view of reducing its objectionable features to a minimum, have recently been completed and are in successful operation.

The cost of construction of the Mystic Water-Works up to 30th April, 1889, is $1,690,936.46.

FRANKLIN FUND.

This is a fund for the encouragement of young mechanics. Dr. BENJAMIN FRANKLIN, in his will, gave the inhabitants of Boston, in 1791, £1,000 sterling, which he directed to be loaned in sums of not more than £60 nor less than £15 to one applicant, at five per cent. interest; to be repaid in annual instalments of ten per cent. each. These loans are restricted to "Young Married Artificers, under the age of twenty-five, who have faithfully served an apprenticeship in Boston, so as to obtain a certificate of good moral character from at least two respectable citizens, who are willing to become their sureties in a bond for their payment of the money."

It was the estimate of Dr. Franklin that the £1,000 would increase in 100 years to £131,000, and then the managers of the fund were to lay out in public works £100,000, and the balance to continue on interest for another hundred years, which he estimated would then amount to $4,600,000; of this amount the sum of $1,610,000 was to be at the disposal of the inhabitants of the town of Boston, and the balance to be paid the Government of the State.

The Board of Aldermen, 1882, after a report in the matter of the Franklin Fund from a committee consisting of Aldermen Stebbins and Hart, passed the following resolves:—

Resolved, That, in the opinion of this Board, comprising a majority of the Trustees of the Franklin Fund, it is expedient and highly desirable that the proportion of said fund which will be available in 1891-92 for investment in "some public work," should be devoted to the extinguishment of the debt incurred for the purchase of the West Roxbury Park.

Resolved, That in the event of such disposition of the said portion of the Franklin Fund, the park thus purchased should be called "Franklin Park," in honor of the testator, who has so generously endowed his native town.

The name Franklin Park was adopted by the Board of Park Commissioners.

The trustees under the will are the Selectmen (now Board of Aldermen), united with the ministers of the oldest Episcopalian, Congregational, and Presbyterian Churches in the Town of Boston.¹ The first loan was made May, 1791.

The Treasurer of the Fund, SAMUEL F. McCLEARY, in his annual report to the trustees, makes the statement of the condition Feb. 1, 1889, viz.:—

TICKNOR BEQUEST.—By the will of the late GEORGE TICKNOR, of Boston, he gives to the City of Boston, on the death of his wife, all his books and manuscripts in the Spanish and Portuguese language, about four thousand volumes, and also the sum of four thousand dollars. After the receipt of said sum, the city is required to spend not less than one thousand dollars in every five years during the twenty-five years next succeeding (i.e., the income of four thousand dollars, at the rate of five per cent. per annum), in the purchase of books in the Spanish and Portuguese languages and literature. At the end of twenty-five years the income of the said sum is to be expended annually in the purchase of books of permanent value, either in the Spanish or Portuguese languages, or in such other languages as may be deemed expedient by those having charge of the library. The books bequeathed or purchased are always to be freely accessible for reference or study, but are not to be loaned for use outside of the library building. If these bequests are not accepted by the city, and the trusts and conditions faithfully executed, the books, manuscripts, and money are to be given to the President and Fellows of Harvard College.

In order that the city might receive the immediate benefit of this contribution, Anna Ticknor, widow of the donor, relinquished her right to retain during her life the books and manuscripts, and placed them under the control of the city, the City Council having previously accepted the bequests in accordance with the terms and conditions of said will, and the Trustees of the Public Library received said bequests on behalf of the city, and made suitable arrangements for the care and custody of the books and manuscripts.
